Kezia Noble -The Female Pick Up Artist Instructor

The Female Pick Up Artist Instructor

If you want to unlock the secrets to picking up a woman then you need to speak to Kezia Noble.

Kezia is the world's leading female Pick Up Artist Instructor and it is her job to teach men the skills they need to attract the women they want. These days with women being in stronger roles at work they are much more confident and men are feeling this. Approaching a group of successful women can be daunting, and that is where Kezia comes in. Her Pick Up boot camps are hugely successful and always fully booked.

The petite, beautiful, Londoner is forthright and brutally honest with the clients she comes into contact with, but her methods work and Kezia gets results. This isn't an obvious career path especially for a female, but Kezia has carved out a niche in the market for female advice for men who are failing with women. Who knows better what a woman wants, than a woman?

She isn't just a pretty face spouting old hat advice; she is a published author and a regular magazine columnist. Fully media trained, Kezia isn't fazed by TV, Radio or opinions. She has a voice which is worth hearing; she is confident and knows her subject matter.

Kezia's story is an interesting one; she has worked as a Pick Up Artist Instructor for five years now, has set up her own Pick Up Artist Instruction company and even has her sister on board working with her. She is a shrewd business woman so don't be fooled by the glamorous exterior.

She is very much like Marmite you either love what she does or you hate it, either way it is always a conversation starter.

If you are interested in interviewing Kezia or perhaps using her as a pundit, please feel free to get in touch to discuss availability.
